

Jani's Journal

- ① Have kids make these foldable booklets.
- ② Teach your star point (kids take notes on the left).
- ③ Kids write ~~the~~ their journals on the right side (using and proving the star points).
- ④ The teacher collects the booklets after 5-10 days to read ☆ over, grade, put stickers in, etc. ☺
- ⑤ The teacher returns student journals and kids tape them in to their notebooks.

It's the end of July already!

I can't believe the summer has passed me by. I had so many plans thwarted by a pitcher's wild toss. Due to a broken arm, we lost trips to Schmitterbahn, the coast and the pool. Later missed out on golf camp and his opportunity to win the state championship with his team.
