

There

Proof: Substitute word
there = here

(here)

Ex: There they are.

Samples:

Their

Proof: Substitute word their = our

(our)

Ex: Their friends moved to California.

Samples:

They're

Proof: Substitute word

They're = they are (they are)

Ex: They're living in San Diego now.

Samples:

Too

Proof: Substitute words

too = so, also

(so)

Ex: We were too frightened!

(also)

Ex: We were happy, too.

Samples:

Two

Proof: Substitute word
two = three

(three)

Ex: Two people were singing.

Samples:

To

Proof: Substitute word

To = ~~so, also, three~~

(~~so, also, three~~)

Ex: She drove the car to town.

Samples:

It's

Proof: Substitute word

It's = it is (it is)

Ex: It's time to go home now.

Samples:

Its

Proof: Substitute word its = his

Ex: The computer's hard drive was broken, but ^(his) its monitor

still worked fine.

Samples:

You're

Proof: Substitute word

You're = you are

(you are)

Ex: You're my favorite person!

Samples:

Your

Proof: Substitute word

your = our

(our)

Ex: Your lunch is ready.

Samples:

We're

Proof: Substitute word

We're = we are

(we are)

Ex: We're in charge of the world.

Samples:

Were

Proof: Substitute word

were = are

(are)

Ex: They were sitting right here a minute ago.

Samples:

Where

Proof: Substitute word
where = here

(here)

Ex: Where are the napkins?

Samples:

Our

Proof: Substitute word

our = your

(your)

Ex: Our children are counting on us.

Samples:

Are

Proof: Substitute word are = were

(were)

Ex: Are you going to San Francisco?

Samples:

Who

Proof: Substitute word who = he

(he)

Ex: Who was singing?

Samples:

Whom

Proof: Substitute word whom = him

Ex: She said this to ^(him)whom?

Samples:

Lose

Proof: Substitute word

lose = find

(find)

Ex: Did you lose your keys?

Samples:

Loose

Proof: Substitute word
loose = tight

Ex: His dentures were so ^(tight) loose
he couldn't smile.

Samples:

Effect

Effect is a noun.

Noun Proof: a _____, the
_____, some _____.

(an effect, the effect, some effect)

Ex: Weather has an effect on her moods.

Samples:

Affect

Affect is a verb.

Verb Proof: I ____, you ____, he ____s.

(I affect, you affect, he affects)

Ex: Rain affects his hair, causing it to curl.

Samples:

A lot

(a whole lot)

Proof: a lot

(a whole lot)

Ex: There was a lot of food at the party.

Samples:

Already

Proof: Substitute words already = by this time

(by this time)

Ex: The cat already had her kittens.

Samples:

All ready

Proof: Substitute words
all ready = all prepared

(all prepared)

Ex: The class is all ready for vacation.

Samples:

All right

Proof: Substitute word
all right = all wrong

(three)

Ex: Everything is all right.

Samples:

Who's

Proof: Substitute word who's = who is

(who is)

Ex: Who's afraid of the big, bad wolf?

Samples:

Whose

Proof: Substitute word whose = his

(his)

Ex: Whose envelopes are these?

Samples:

Lie

Proof: Substitute word

lie = sit

Ex: I think I'll go ^(sit)lie down.

Samples:

Lay

Proof: Substitute word

lay = put (put)

Ex: He should lay the candle on the table.

Samples:

Accept

Proof: Substitute word

accept = take

(take)

Ex: Will they accept this idea?

Samples:

Except

Proof: Substitute word except = but

(but)

Ex: Nobody is here except us.

Samples:

Used to

Proof: Substitute word used to =

??

()
Ex: We used to be friends.

Samples:

Should've

Proof: Substitute word
two = three

(three)

Ex: Two people were singing.

Samples:

Two

Proof: Substitute word
two = three

(three)

Ex: Two people were singing.

Samples: